Furn Teta – Lebanese Bakery & Catering

"Grandma's Oven" · Bliss Street, Hamra, Beirut

About Us

Furn Teta is a family-run Lebanese bakery founded in 2021 by siblings Rami and Lina Haddad. The bakery started from their grandmother's kitchen in Nabatieh, where she baked manouche every morning for the whole neighborhood. After the 2019 economic crisis, Rami and Lina decided to turn her recipes into a small business that brings honest, affordable, wood-fired baking to Hamra.

Mission: to bring authentic, wood-fired Lebanese baking to everyday life, made fresh every morning using our grandmother's recipes and locally sourced ingredients.

Our Team

Rami Haddad – Co-founder & Head Baker. Rami has 15 years of experience in traditional wood-fired baking. He trained in bakeries in Saida and Tripoli before opening Furn Teta. He personally prepares the dough every morning starting at 4:30am and leads the weekend workshops.

Lina Haddad – Co-founder, Operations & Catering. Lina studied business at the Lebanese University and handles all catering orders, events, partnerships, and customer relations. All catering requests go through Lina.

Support team: two bakers and one delivery driver.

Hours, Location & Delivery

• Hours: Monday–Saturday, 6:30am–2:00pm. Closed Sundays.
• Location: Bliss Street, Hamra, near AUB Main Gate.
• Delivery: within Hamra and Ras Beirut only, ordered by phone or WhatsApp.

What Makes Us Different

Everything is baked in a real wood-fired saj and oven. Dough is made fresh every day and never frozen. Our za'atar comes directly from family farms in South Lebanon, and our cheese from a small dairy in the Bekaa.
